

Team 8

Alison Grau, Alysson Ignacio, Sydney Beyer

Carolina Mental Health Community Interviews

This short film delves into interviews with diverse communities and organizations at UNC, exploring the transformative ways these groups have enhanced mental health and the overall college experience. The focal point is on emphasizing the importance of cultivating a foundation within an engaging community at UNC. Its creators aim for students and faculty to take away a profound sense of love and connection from the film.

WATCH VIDEO

